Salary: Hourly

The Extended Day program at St. George's provides a supervised program for students in a safe, structured environment. Students enrolled in the Extended Day program enjoy an enriched afternoon including academic support and extension, extracurricular opportunities, social growth activities, snack, and free play time. Homework time and additional academic support is provided for students in grades one through five on a daily basis. The Extended Day Counselor reports directly to the Director of Extended Day. Counselors support the director in meeting the expectations of the program while supporting the student and family needs.

Performance Responsibilities:

- Exert an enthusiastic, positive, and supportive influence with children
- Exercise consistent and effective discipline in a positive atmosphere and seek opportunities for good relations with parents and community representatives
- Initiate, provide, and implement activities that enhance learning through art, music, stories, and other activities.
- Communicate and collaborate with the director
- Cooperate and collaborate with all school employees and administration
- Fulfill additional program-related duties as assigned by the director

Qualities:

- Genuinely care about children and enjoy relating to them while working in their midst
- Show initiative in responding to needs of program mission within guidelines of provided training and orientation
- Enjoy interacting with children and encouraging them in their goals
- A positive role model for children supporting Judeo-Christian values

Employment:

Monday - Friday, 2:40-6:00 pm or Wednesday from 1:55-6:00 pm (possible additional hours available for evening school events and special camps during school vacations)
